ARTIST BIO:

"A diverse and dynamic talent, Jason Heeter offers up a powerful Americana and Blues Rock sound that's complemented by a smoky smooth voice. Sometimes it's funky, sometimes it's folk, but it is always grooving! An accomplished singer and multi-instrumentalist, Heeter has performed across the United States, and throughout his career has shared the stage with such acts as Leftover Salmon, Maggie Rose, Big Something, Joslyn & the Sweet Compression, and National Park Radio.

After releasing the eclectic collaboration album "Deuce & Heeter – The '79 Sessions" along with colleague Deuce Denninger, and the solo EP "Staring at the Sun", Heeter is back in the studio with his band The AC's working on a new self titled album. With extensive experience, and influences ranging from JJ Cale, to Jason Isbell; from Bill Withers, to the Grateful Dead, the stylistic variety of his catalog further confirms his natural talent. You may find him at a solo performance, or featured in a number of acts, including Heet & the A.C.'s, Ivas John Band, Deuce Denninger Band, and Shades of Soul, but one thing is for certain. With Heeter on stage, its gonna be a good time!
